  - (b) making a payment to a member in carrying out the company's charitable purpose(s).

  - (c) Life – a member appointed as such by the board for a prolonged and outstanding contribution to the company. They do not have to be ordinary members.

- (d) Organisation – an incorporated entity, club, school, community group or such ‘person’ deemed as such by the board. An organisation member does not have voting rights.
- 10.3 The company must establish and maintain a register of members. The register of members must be kept by the secretary and must contain:
- (a) for each current member:
    - i. name
    - ii. address
    - iii. any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and

- 13.4 If the directors reject an application or change the type of membership, the secretary must write to the applicant as soon as possible to tell them that their application has been rejected. The directors are not required to give reasons.
- 13.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the directors may approve an application even if the application does not state the matters listed in clauses 12(a), 12(b) or 12(c). In that case, by applying to be a member, the applicant agrees to those three matters.

37. Declaring the result of a vote on show of hands

37.1 On a show of hands, the chairperson's decision is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote. 37.2. The chairperson and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.

38.1 A vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of or after a vote by a show of hands by:

- (a) at least five members present

- (b) members present with at least 5% of the votes that may be passed on the resolution on the vote in writing (worked out as at the midnight before the vote in writing is demanded), or
  - (c) the chairperson.
- 38.2 A vote in writing must be taken when and how the chairperson directs, unless clause 38.3 applies.
- 38.3 A vote in writing must be held immediately if it is demanded under clause 38.1:
  - (a) for the election of a chairperson under clause 26.2, or

- 40.2 When a vote in writing is held, a proxy:
- (a) does not need to vote, unless the proxy appointment specifies the way they must vote
  - (b) if the way they must vote is specified on the proxy form, must vote that way, and
  - (c) if the proxy is also a member or holds more than one proxy, may cast the votes held in different ways.
